

YOUTH ARTS & HERITAGE FESTIVAL
MON 25TH - FRI 29TH OCT 2021

Are you a singer, dancer, musician, or performer? Aged 11-19?

NessFest is seeking young people to perform at this year's Youth Arts and Heritage Festival taking place in Lowestoft during October half-term.

Performers will have the opportunity to attend a workshop on performance techniques, be filmed at a studio, and appear on the virtual stage at the festival. In addition, a small group of performers will be shortlisted to appear live at the Seagull Theatre on Wednesday 27th October.

Open to musicians, dancers, bands, poets or any performers, first-time or experienced. You need to be aged 11-19 years, from Lowestoft, or surrounding areas including Norwich and Great Yarmouth, and able to attend filming on Sunday 24th October.

This is a performance space to showcase young, local talent, so be brave and have a go!

Click here to fill out an application form. Deadline for applications is midnight on Friday 8th October. Performers will be selected by the NessFest team and confirmed the following week.

If you have any questions, please contact Phoebe at phoebe.wingate@norfolk.gov.uk

This event will be run according to covid guidelines and as such, is subject to change.

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND